

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

MESSAGE FROM THE UNSEEN

As from 10.13 am on 07 July 2011, the Khalifatullah received messages all day long. Even a family witnessed revelations and perfume being manifested on his humble self. Moreover at night during the Darus Quran (on Surah Al-Ankabut V.45-69), he said through the Ruh-il-Qudduss:

“Recite the Holy Quran which was sent through revelation regularly, and perform your daily (obligatory) prayers regularly. Prayers protect all of you against misdeeds and evil doings; then remember Allah, the Zikr-e-Akbar, whether publicly or secretly – Allah knows the secrets of your heart. The Zikr-e-Allah is the most important thing in one’s life. Allah is All-Knowing.

Discuss with the Jews and Christians in an agreeable manner. Not all Christians are bad men – There are Christians who do pray one God. Make sure not to mix all the Jews and Christians in one basket. Christianity was a true religion believing in only one God. Nowadays, in this era, Allah does send His revelations through His chosen one, but what happened? They got used to these revelations, so afterwards they turned their backs and returned back to their ancient corrupted beliefs.

Today I’ve met with a Christian believing in only one God. We cannot blame all Christians. Muslims believe that the keys of paradise are in our hands. Do not turn your back to the manifestation and signs of Allah. Among Jews and Christians there are really good people who believe in one God but not with the evil-doers. The way you behave, you speak, the way you help him or her, the way you pray for him etc., help them to sort out their difficulties, problems. When a revelation descends from the heaven for somebody, you must be very happy, may it be a good or a warning, this means that Allah loves you a lot, how lucky you are that Allah informs you about your good or bad behaviour. Instead of getting angry, it is preferable to perform two Sjdas (prostration) to thank Allah. The true infidels will never accept this. They are the mischief makers.

Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) was an illiterate, yet he was chosen to receive the divine revelations from Allah. This proves the veracity of a true prophet. If really he was literate and knows everything, people would say that he knows everything and he is pretending to have revelations from Allah. I thank God that I don’t know how to turn on a computer; neither do I read books etc. In this era, I am like my Aka (master) Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him). This is why people do not believe in my revelations as I don’t know Arabic, Urdu, English or French but yet I receive revelations in all these languages. I get my “Ilm” (knowledge) from my Allah. I once dreamt that I was on a golden branch with 3 certificates, the third one glittered the most.

People ask questions why not a sign coming to prove his veracity – nowadays same is happening on our website, people keep asking questions about me. Allah is only Witness. He is the Knower of all secrets of the heavens and earth. People used to mock at the prophet of Allah, asking him where the predicted punishment is – they ignore that it will surely come at the right time.

Allah addressed to Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) as “Yaa Ibaadi...” Allah loves His prophet the most – “My Universe is vast, you go anywhere you want, just worship Me only. All souls will taste death. No one will escape it – surely they have to come to Me to account for their good deeds and misdeeds.”

True believers detach themselves from this temporal world. They seek the eternal life where they will live a peaceful life if ever they have sowed good actions in this temporal world.

Animals cannot provide for their food. Allah makes all these provisions even for man. But people are never grateful to Allah. They prefer to worship other gods than Allah. People are “Naa Shukar” (ungrateful), egoistic without thinking of others. They waste every commodity which Allah has gifted all of us.

Life in this world is just an entertainment and a joke. Allah says that real life is the eternal life in the hereafter. Allah says that people appreciate what is false and lies – They raise him (a man like themselves) to the highest rank, covering his mistakes, frauds and corruptions. They do not believe in favours, signs and manifestations of Allah through His Chosen One. Those who fight in the cause of Allah will never fail in their duties. Allah remains always with the “Muhsineen” (The doers of good).

I once dreamt of a tree surrounded with cobweb. I was busy breaking the web which was around the tree – the tree represents a Jamaat (or Ummah), the Ummah Muhammadiya (saws) who is blocked. I have come to show the way to humanity.”
