IMPORTANT MESSAGE OF THE KHALIFATULLAH

HAZRAT MUNIR A. AZIM <sup>(ATBA)</sup>

16 May 2020 * 22 Ramadan 1441 AH

After greeting everyone with the greeting of peace, Hazrat Khalifatullah (atba) read the Tashahhud, Ta'uz, Surah Al Fatiha, and the following Quranic verse:

أَفَكُلَّمَا جَاءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ بِمَا لَا تَهْوَىٰ أَنفُسُكُمْ أَسْتَكْبِرْتُمْ

Afakullamaa jaaaakum Rasuulum-
bimaa laa tahwaaa
anfusukumus-takbartum?

Is it ever so, that,
when there comes to you a messenger
(from Allah) with that which you yourselves
do not desire, you grow arrogant, and some you disbelieve and some you killed? (Al-Baqara 2: 88).

And then he said:

Dear brothers, sisters and children,

Assalamoualaikum Warahmatullah Wabarakaatuhu

In the light of the recent death of one of my followers in Melapalayam, Tirunelveli, at the age of 83 in the glorious and blessed days of Ramadan, due to old-age related problems which had been enhanced and complicated by the contraction of the novel coronavirus, it is deeply disgusting that some Mullahs and members of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community have taken the lead and gone forward, as if it is their sacred duty to defile this respectable senior member of our Jamaat as well as the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam, and this humble self as the Messenger of Allah. Videos and Audios have been circulated in Whats App and other social medias to give a bad name to Allah and His Khalifatullah and to ridicule to the most disgusting level the Divine Manifestation of this age.

One of those Mullahs is one Shajahan who has said:

“Assalamu Alaikum Wa Rahmathullah Wa Barakathuhoo. The deceased one is the father of Nazeer Sahib and his brothers Saleem Sahib and Shanawaz Sahib. All were in our Jamaat earlier. Their father has now died. They all, all their family including their father joined the Mauritius group. After that they continued to oppose us. Their house is opposite to Melapalayam Jamaat. There, that 83 years old, aged one only died due to CORONA. Particularly to be noted (in this) that they have been spreading a news about CORONAVIRUS as a sign of this time, sign for him as a prophet, Sign for Munir Ahmad Azim, and it will never affect us and we have the promise that it will not come to us etc. through Facebook and what's up. Now CORONAVIRUS has approached those group of persons. Thus, it is a Sign of God. Jazakumullah.”

These people claim that I have said that NO ONE from among my disciples shall be ever touched by the coronavirus, which is utterly false. I said: “...God the Almighty has revealed to me that the people of my community, who are sincere with the Divine Manifestation, who sincerely believe in this humble servant of God in this century, who obey me completely and do not speak out against the Chosen Servant of Allah and don't quarrel with me, so all of these people regardless of their number will be RELATIVELY SAFE from Coronavirus.”

So, I never said that they will not contract it, but I said that Allah will indeed show His signs through them. My followers shall be relatively safe... What do you understand by “relatively”? O Mullah, what do you understand by this word? “Relatively” does not mean “completely”. It can be that they contract the virus, especially if that person is old and nearing death, as is the case of my disciple Khawja Mohyuddin Sahib. Indeed his lifespan itself is a miracle of duah, for through duah he got exactly one year of extension of life by our merciful Allah. Allah showed His might on him, and now has used him to unearth the callousness and ill-thoughts of the enemies of truth, and through him and the sincere members of my Jamaat, Allah shall show a mighty sign to the world.

Contracting the virus and dying from it are two different things. That which has come, has come, and the sincere believers who fall prey to it are martyrs in the way of Allah. And in the case of Khawja Mohyuddin Sahib, his is a double martyrdom for he has also reached his final hours during the holy month of Ramadan.

Moreover, like furnished through the report of his elder son Shanavaz Sahib – which I read out in my Friday Sermon of 08 May 2020, when the medical staff have tested him and come to the conclusion that he has the virus, they removed oxygen and put him in the Coronavirus Isolation Ward. And due to his multiple old-age related and extended health complications, he was unable to fight one more virus which proved fatal to him. Inna Lillaahi wa inna ilayhi Rajeeoune.

In the Times of India, an article dated 09 May 2020 was published about his case, I quote: “Collector Shilpa Prabhakar Satish said the man had various co-morbid conditions. “He had a history of diabetes, hypertension...””, etc.

So, like I told you, Khawja Mohyuddin Sahib already had a severe health complication for 20 years, especially so in his old age, and like I told you all in both my Message of 05 May 2020, and my Friday Sermon of 08 May 2020, even though my disciple may be sincere, but like any human, if Allah has decreed his death, if his time has come (because nobody is immortal) he will certainly die.

These times are indeed times of trial for all my disciples, and also for all humanity. By telling my faithful disciples “not to have recourse to any material resource to to protect themselves from it...” is meant only the remedies which man has fabricated so that they may be protected by it. Like I told you: “I do not declare that it is illegal to use medication or prevention methods in the case of Coronavirus or any other disease. The Holy Prophet of Islam, Hazrat Muhammad (pbuh) said that there is no disease that God has not provided the remedy (for it). But I consider it a sin to conceal by vaccination the heavenly sign with which God has given me and my faithful disciples and by which He wants to show His selective favour to those who sincerely accept me. I cannot therefore insult and discredit this sign of divine grace by submitting to vaccination [that is, as a preventive measure] and thus be guilty of not having faith in the promise of God. I know that government policy in general is to protect people from this scourge and that they would gladly accept any better remedy than vaccination. Considering this my decision is not contradictory to government action.”

Which meant that sooner or later man will definitely develop a vaccine for it, but my disciples should put their trust in Allah that Allah will reveal a better cure for them and use them as His signs for the world. Not such a sign that they will not die, but like Allah has done, and will do, He will show His choicest favours on them compared to the rest of mankind, and especially those who mock the signs of Allah and Allah’s Messenger and Jamaat – Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam.

But if they are forced to take any remedy (or cure) for it, as it is with government instructions and laws, and they have no intention to disobey the orders of Allah, in this case, Allah is ever merciful, for they were forced to do it. Indeed, these times are times of trial, like Judgement Day. Those who obey Allah and His Khalifatullah will prosper, which means to say, not just on earth, but if Allah has decreed their death, for them is reserved a most beautiful eternal life, the true life. Insha-Allah.

Like in the Battle of Badr, some believers fell to their martyrdom, while others survived and went on to contribute to the great victory of Islam during the lifetime of the Holy Prophet of Islam (pbuh) and even after his demise. What I am telling you, just like the Promised Messiah Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as) told you, like it is Sunnat-Allah (the practice of Allah) that it is the believers – and in this era and till the day of Judgement – it is my true followers (not those in name only but the true believers) who shall be greater in number than THOSE WHO

MOCK THE DIVINE SIGNS AND MESSENGER, i.e. this humble self and also the one whom Allah shall bless with the Holy Spirit at a time when people would have forgotten my teachings, that is, the same teachings of Islam, the same teachings of my beloved master Hazrat Muhammad (pbuh), and those of the Promised Messiah Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as) and the true teachings of all the blessed prophets of Allah.

I also told the world: “If some will laugh at what I say and others will call me crazy, Allah (swt) has revealed to me that HE WILL PUNISH THE PERSON WHO TRIES TO RIDICULE ME AND THAT HIS ANGER, WHICH HAS ALREADY BEEN AWAKENED, WILL DESTROY HIM. Many lives will be destroyed. But, as He told me: “O My Chosen Servant, for those who sincerely believe in you, do not break your heart, they will be spared and they will live in peace. [THAT IS TO SAY, ALLAH WILL SHOW HIS SIGNS THROUGH THEM AND SAVE THEM, EVEN IF IT MEANS THAT THEY HAVE CONTRACTED THE VIRUS – So, Allah will use my disciples as Signs for mankind and if anyone dare to ridicule the Signs of Allah because of what happens to them, then bear in mind what Allah says:]. Do not believe that criminals are safe [Those criminals who persecuted believers because of their belief in the oneness of God]. We are approaching their homes. I prepare My armies by multiplying the bacilli of Coronavirus. People will be found lifeless in their homes like dead animals. It will then be the day of God’s victory.””

Therefore, it is your mocking the Signs of Allah and calumniating the Messenger of Allah and the believers which will provoke Allah to use this virus against you – those who mock at His Signs and Messenger and the sincere believers – and Allah will ruin them in a most horrible way.

Allah (swt) continues: “PEOPLE WHO CAUSED MUCH DISORDER FOR YOU AND WANT TO WITNESS YOUR FEARFUL END, LET ME TAKE CARE OF THESE PEOPLE. Place your trust only in Me. Worldly trials will continue, but do not forget and rest assured O My Khalifatullah that success is with you and failure is with your enemies. Wait patiently for the manifestation of this day. This is the revelation from your Creator.” (Message of the Khalifatullah Munir A. Azim (atba) on Youtube dated 11 March 2020)

Thus, the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community with one of its Mullahs in Tirunelveli by the name of Shajahan, among many others as well, have gone overboard and have dared to say such poisonous words against Allah and His Khalifatullah that I fear that the day is not far that Allah will avenge my insult and that of His Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam and bring this Mullah and those like unto him to their destruction!

This Mullah also uttered this abomination. I quote: “Indeed what had been given to him for what he did fitna in Ahmadiyya Jamaat? Indeed for that fitna done by him, as a Khalifa he should have given only the punishment of death penalty. Death penalty must have been given. But Khalifa has shown mercy on him and, just expelled him only from Nizam-e-Jamaat. Only expelled from the Jamaat. (So) Say thank you and go away! It’s good for you ! without doing this, if you crush with the Jamaat...”

That fanatic Mullah, great defender of Khilafat forgot to do his homework before issuing such statements!

Bear in mind that true prophecies sooner or later always reach their realisation. A liar devoid of divine support cannot predict with precision about epidemics, even devastating pandemics like the COVID-19. Some people make guesses, but envoys of Allah get from Allah some very useful information so that they may warn mankind. Since long, I have warned mankind of what shall befall it, but few took my warnings into consideration.

O Stupid Mullah! Don’t you know what Allah has said in the Holy Quran:

Wa maa kaana li rassulin ayyatiya bi-Aayatin illaa bi-iznillaah.

A Messenger cannot bring a Sign except with the permission of Allah. (Ar-Rad 13: 39).

Don’t you know what the Mullahs from the Sunnat Jamaat, more specifically known as the Ahle Sunnat wal Jamaat have written in a book: “Mirza’i Haqiqat ka Izhar” in 1929? They say that “Mirza Jee” (that is, the Promised Messiah Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as)) had written that the epidemic of the plague shall not reach Qadian. They brought forward what Hazrat Ahmad (as) had written in ‘Mawahibul-Rahman’ that all the people will be in peace and shall be far away from the epidemic, that is, all the truthful who have believed in him.

Those Mullahs therefore wrote that “Mirza” has said that wherever in the world where there are the “Mirza’is” (i.e. those who believed in him), they shall not be affected by this epidemic. When the “Mirza’is” (as they say) died with this epidemic, therefore many people began a protest and revolt against him and the Ahmadiyya Movement – just like how the mainstream Ahmadiyya Community with its stupid Mullahs are protesting and mocking the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam and this humble self!

The Sunni Mullahs quote the book “Dafi-ul-Bala”, page 8 in which it is said: “Allah had taken the name of Qadian because in Qadian there would not be any fear due to destruction (by that epidemic) because this place is the seat of His Prophet. This is a Sign for all nations.”

They continued, saying that Qadian was a small village with very few inhabitants when the epidemic came in it. The Newspaper “Paisa Akhbar” of Lahore dated 20 April 1904 wrote: “Qadian (which is a place) in Punjab is the FIRST to be contaminated by the epidemic which has made 20 deaths. The people are in fear and difficulty.”

They wrote in their book: “May the readers examine the (false) revelation of Mirza Saheb who had said (predicted) that Qadian shall never be contaminated by that epidemic. But the newspaper “Paisa Akhbar” had announced that the epidemic had entered Qadian.”

They furthermore stated that when the epidemic reached such a degree where many persons died in Qadian due to the plague, and that nearly all the newspapers had published the news, Mirza [Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as)] was forced to admit this, and that he (Mirza) wrote in Al-Hakam-e-Qadian on 10 April 1907:

“Now, the epidemic is progressing as if a fire which is propagating over all four corners (everywhere). (This fire had propagated in a remarkable way). I had prayed a lot before Allah for my assembly (my followers) so that this epidemic is stopped but the prayer (duah) was not accepted (Qabul).”

Furthermore, the opponents of the Promised Messiah (as) put these testimonial letters as proofs in their favour:

“My Beloved My dear Nawab Saheb ... I feel sad after reading that my dear Abdur Rehman Khan has again developed fever. May God give him cure. .... at this place Plague is wildly raging. A person gets fever and within few hours he is dead. God knows best when this affliction will end. Public is extremely scared. Trust for life has vanished. Screams and cries are coming from all sides. It is doomsday everywhere. Now what can I say, what advice can I give? I am extremely confused what to do.” (Maktoobaat-e-Ahmadiyya Vol.5 No.4 Letter No.36 p.112)

“At this place in Qadian, nowadays Plague is wildly raging. Nearly all surrounding villages have vanished.” (Maktoobaat-e-Ahmadiyya vol.5 No.4 Letter No.36 p.112-115)

“Today the son of Mian Mohammed Fazal, editor of the newspaper, is also on deathbed, he has Pneumonic plague, it seems that he is breathing his last. There are cries everywhere. May God have His blessing.” (Maktoobaat-e-Ahmadiyya vol.5 No.4 Letter No.53 p.131)

Like this I can quote many references to show you that Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as) and the Ahmadiyya Movement and followers went through all kinds of mockeries by the non-Ahmadi Muslims because of the prophecy foretelling the plague. Now, history is repeating itself. Won't the Ahmadi Muslims get a lesson out of it? Does this all mean that Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as) was – Nawzubillah – false? That his prophecy on the plague was false? Go and reflect and don't just talk nonsense on the Signs of Allah before it is too late for you. This is the humble advice I give you.

The rest of the Muslims have joined hands to persecute the Ahmadi Muslims, to bar them all from entrance in Saudi Arabia for the Hajj, and to label the Promised Messiah as a liar, that his prophecies are false and they even reunited to pass the law against the Ahmadi in Pakistan in September 1974 to bar them from claiming to be Muslims and to practice Islam in any way. They did so much atrocities against the Ahmadi Muslims!

Among the first martyrs of Islam Ahmadiyyat, there is the death by lapidation of Abdul Latiff Shaheed in Afghanistan. They gave him and another disciple the “death penalty”. From then on, many Ahmadis received the “death penalty” from the hands of the non-Ahmadi Muslims? And this up till today where Ahmadi Muslim mosques were bombarded on a Friday (Jumu'ah). Many died that day, and in the history of Ahmadiyyat, like this, there are thousands who received the “death penalty”. Were these non-Ahmadis right then to act like this? How can you now hold the same speech as the non-Ahmadi Muslims?

Will the Ahmadiyya Jamaat now repeat the same errors of the rest of the Muslims who calumniated the Promised Messiah (as)? Were all those persecutions in vain? Do you preach “Love for All, Hatred for None” yet persecute and say such nonsense on a Messenger of Allah who is the spiritual heir of Hazrat Muhammad (pbuh) and Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as)? Don't you reflect on your own actions?

From where I look, in this era you have become worst than the Sunni Muslims and the rest of the Muslim Ummah. Alhamdulillah, the latter are little by little understanding the teachings of Islam that the door of prophethood – that is, a non-law-bearing prophethood – is open. What about you? You have always preached that this door is open but when Allah tried you with your own beliefs, you turned on your backs? It is indeed very sad! Indeed, it is a calamity!

O Stupid Ahmadi Mullahs, bear in mind what Allah says in the Holy Quran for people like you: “Miserable is the price for which they have sold their souls, in that they deny (the revelation) which Allah has sent down, in insolent envy that Allah of His Grace should send it to any of His servants He pleases: Thus have they drawn on themselves Anger upon Anger. And humiliating is the punishment of those who reject Faith.” (Al-Baqara 2: 91).

“The likeness of those who are entrusted with the Law of Moses, yet do not apply it, is as the likeness of the ass carrying books. Wretched is the likeness of people who deny the revelations of Allah. And Allah does not guide the wrongdoing people.” (Surah Al-Jumu'ah 62: 6).

“Let them laugh a little; they will weep a lot in return for what they have done.” (At-Tauba 9: 82).

I will close my message here for today. If I continue, I can talk and talk on this subject for a very long time. Won't you then reflect and reform before it is too late for you?

The anger of Allah can fall at any time upon you. You seek to convinced the believers of truth to renounce the truth, just like the other Muslims who tried to make you renounce Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as). Do not cross your limits because Allah has the capacity to inflict upon you great miseries. So, reform yourselves before it is too late for you!

May Allah guide you all towards His righteous path. Indeed this message will benefit only those who reflect upon the commandments of Allah and act upon this for the benefit of their own souls. I thank you for your attention.

Assalamaoualaikum Warahmatullah Wabarakaatuhu.
